

crucifixion of Jesus

Matthew 27:33-51

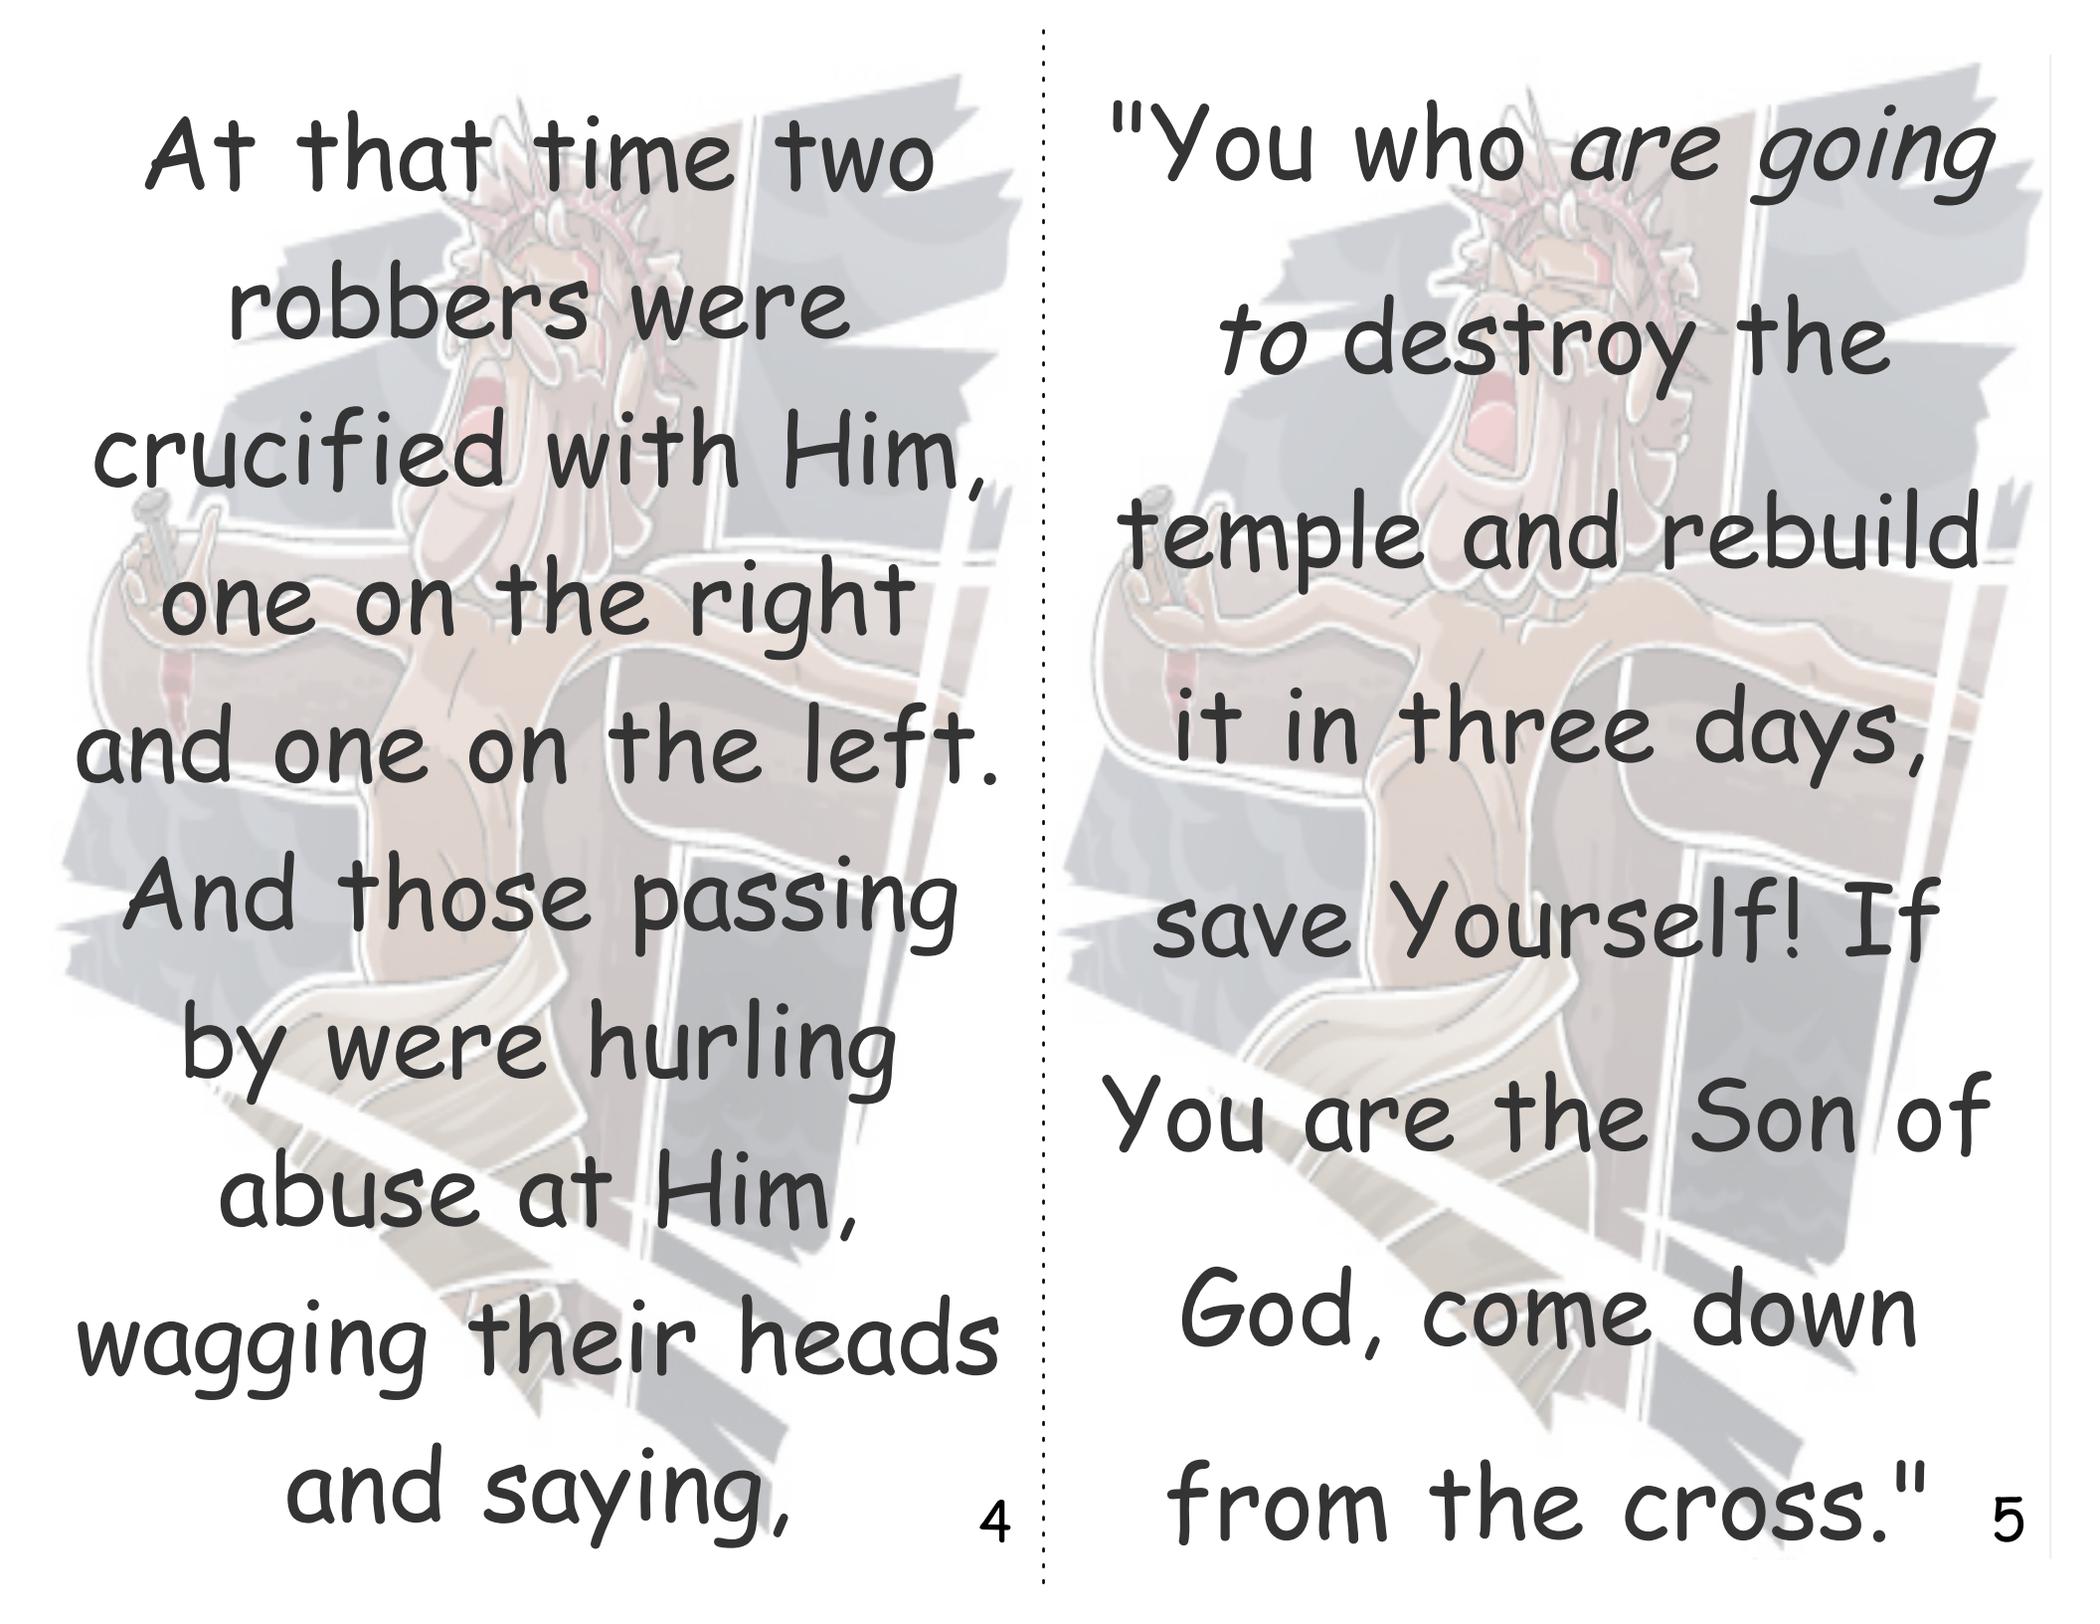

And when they came to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull, they gave Him wine to drink mixed with gall; and after tasting it, He was unwilling to drink. 1

And when they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments among themselves by casting lots. And sitting down, they began to keep watch over Him there.

And above His head they put up the charge against Him which read, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

At that time two robbers were
crucified with Him,
one on the right
and one on the left.
And those passing
by were hurling
abuse at Him,
wagging their heads
and saying,

4

"You who are going
to destroy the
temple and rebuild
it in three days,
save Yourself! If
You are the Son of God, come down
from the cross."

5

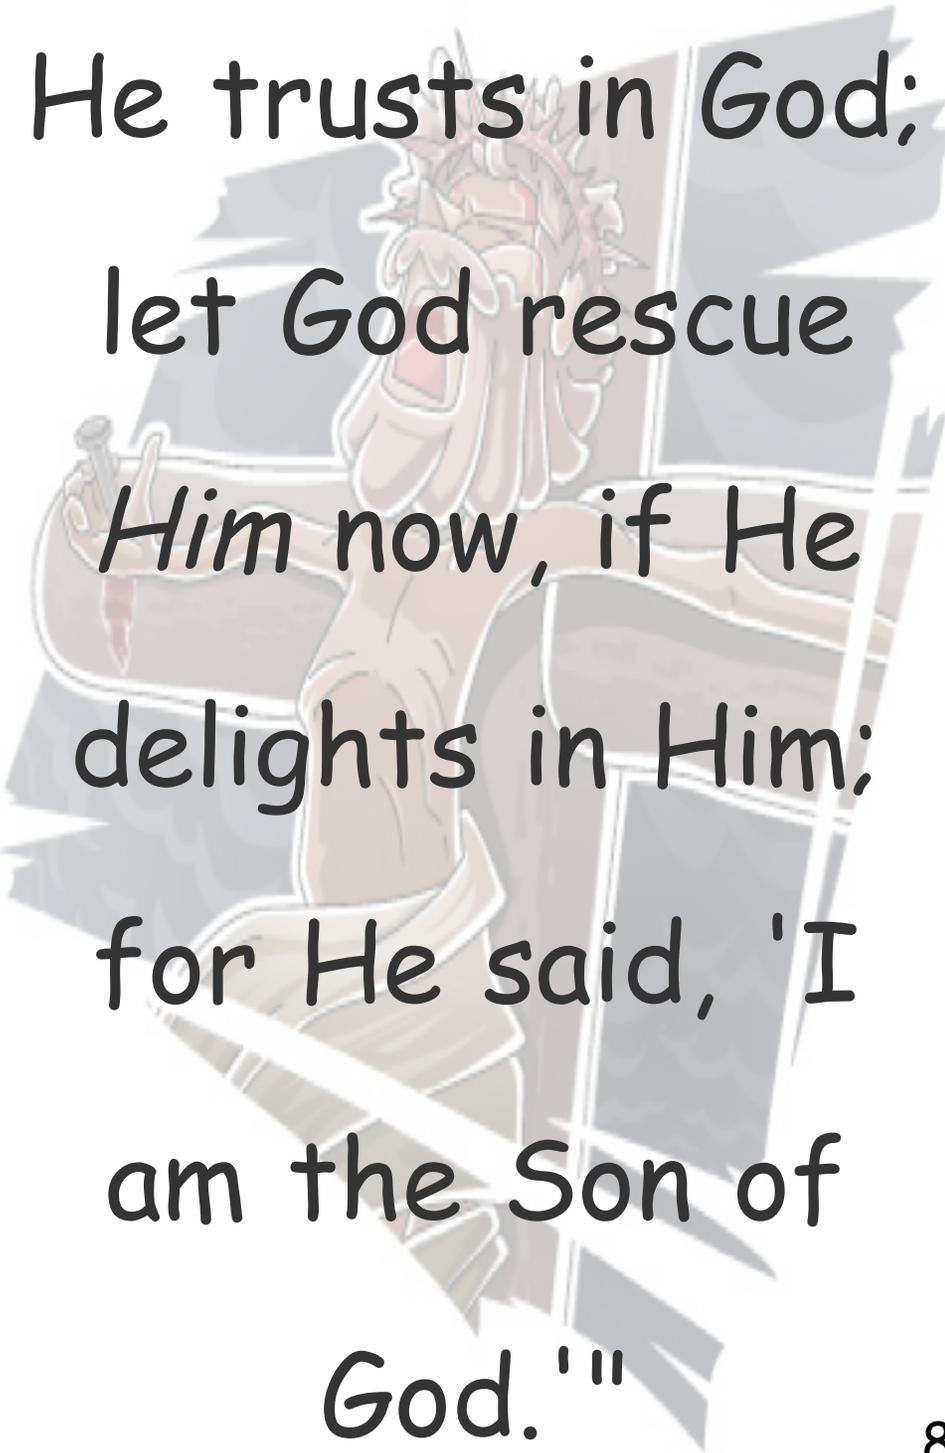

A stylized illustration of a man with a crown and scepter, likely representing a king or a religious figure, is visible in the background of the page. The man is wearing a brown robe and a crown with a cross on top. He is holding a scepter in his right hand. The background is a light blue and white grid pattern.

In the same way
the chief priests
also, along with
the scribes and
elders, were
mocking Him and
saying,

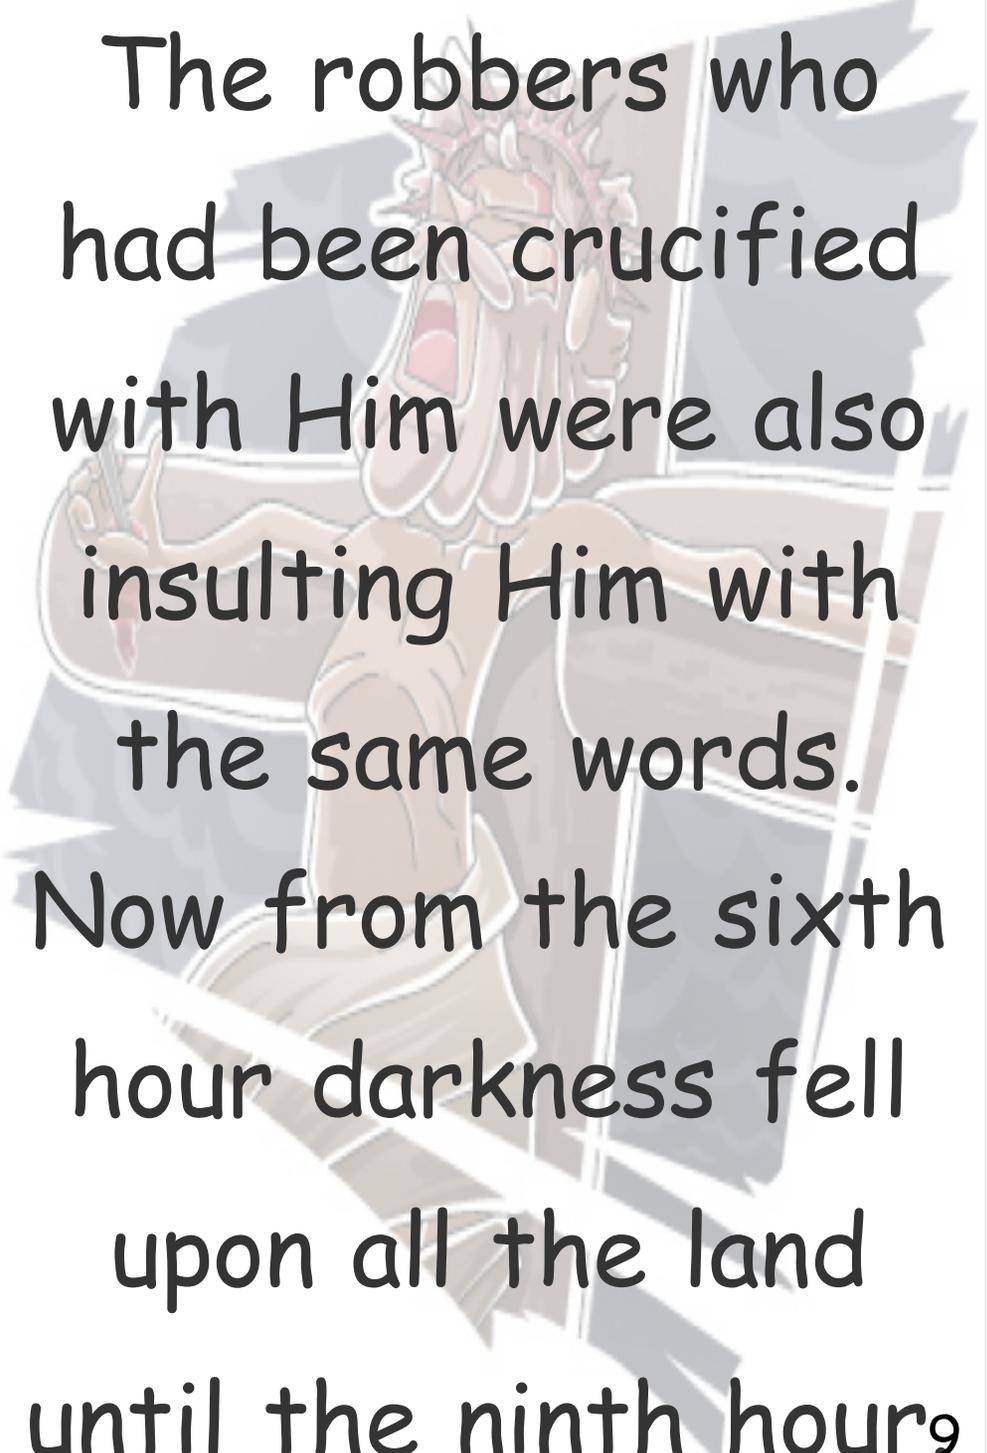

6

"He saved others;
He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel; let Him now come down
from the cross, and we will believe in Him."

7

He trusts in God;
let God rescue
Him now, if He
delights in Him;
for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

The robbers who had been crucified
with Him were also insulting Him with the same words.
Now from the sixth
hour darkness fell
upon all the land
8 until the ninth hour9

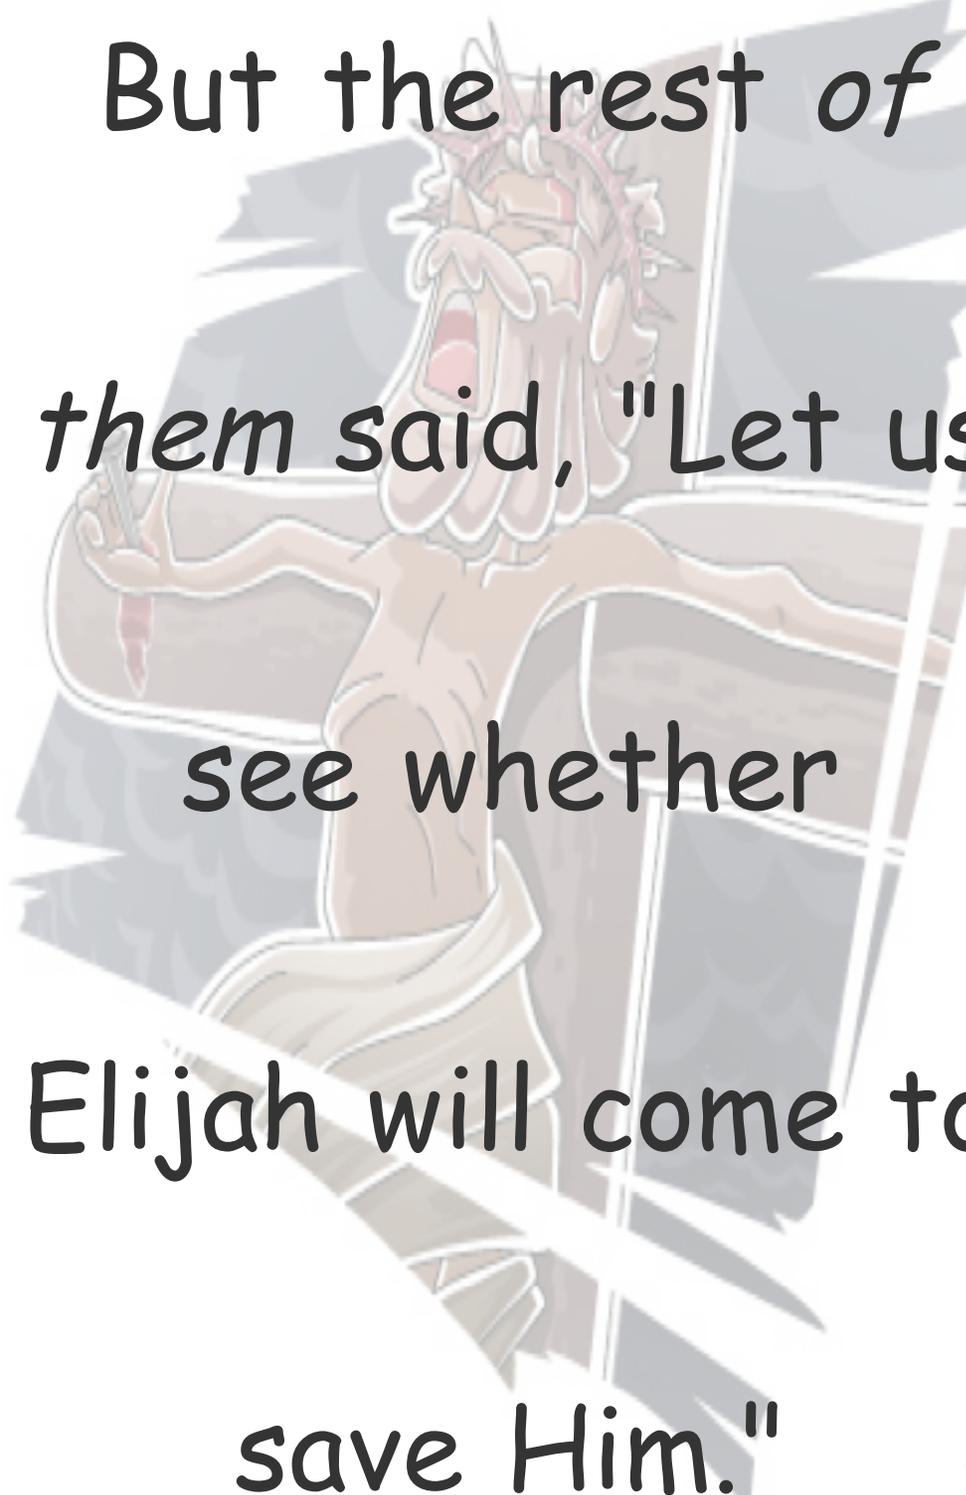

About the ninth
hour Jesus cried
out with a loud
voice, saying, "My God, My God, why
have You
forsaken Me?" ₁₀

And some of those who were
standing there,
when they heard
it, began saying,
"This man is calling for Elijah."₁₁

Immediately one of them ran, and
taking a sponge, he
filled it with sour
wine and put it on a
reed, and gave Him
a drink.

But the rest of them said, "Let us
see whether Elijah will come to save Him."

And Jesus cried
out again with a
loud voice, and
yielded up His spirit.

And behold, the
veil of the temple
was torn in two
from top to bottom; and the earth shook and
the rocks were
split.
